Subject: Medical License Renewal Fees for Graduating Residents

Referred to: Governmental Affairs Council

RESOLVED, that the Illinois State Medical Society (ISMS) work with the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation to advocate for change, and if necessary cause to be introduced legislation, that: provides a waiver of exemption from fees associated with the next license renewal for graduating residents who get their permanent Illinois medical license within 6 months of the opening of the typical renewal period; and, that discounts the renewal fee to one half of the typical fee for graduating residents who receive their first permanent Illinois medical license more than 6 months but less than 18 months prior to the opening of the typical renewal period.
